

Course Outline

Dementia: Promoting Dignity in Dementia Care

Minimum and Maximum Learners: 06 - 16 Duration: One Day Timings: 10:00 - 16:30

Suitable for

All health and social care professionals who work with people with dementia, in particular:

- Day care staff
- Domiciliary care staff
- Charity staff
- Health care assistants
- Nursing staff
- Housing Staff
- Residential care staff
- Team Leaders and Managers

Completion of Dementia Awareness training within the last two years is required before attendance.

Aim

To explore what 'dignity in care' means in dementia care. You will examine and evaluate daily care routines in your care-setting and develop strategies and practices to promote clients' dignity, choice, independence and rights.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, you will be able to:

- ✓ Review your current attitudes, skills and knowledge about dementia.
- ✓ Describe the 'Dignity in Care Factors' and how to promote them in your own care-setting.
- ✓ Explain the impact on people when dignity and respect are not upheld.
- ✓ List key legislation regarding dignity, choice, independence and rights (including safeguarding, Deprivation of Liberties Act and the Care Act).
- ✓ Recognise and respect cultural needs of people with protected characteristics.

Benefits of Attending

- ✔ Feel confident and ready to put your learning into practice.
- ✔ Take away a practical toolkit with proven techniques and ideas you can use straight away.
- ✔ Create a Personal Action Plan to apply your learning in your workplace.

Training Style

This course is highly interactive and uses engaging, 'brain-friendly' methods such as exercises, quizzes, group discussions, skills practice, storytelling and practical tools to support real-world application.

You'll receive a Welcome Pack with pre-course activities, a Learner Workbook during training, an E-Book on this topic and a Bonus Pack afterwards with extra tools and follow-up activities to help you put learning into practice. (*email required)
